LUNCH

"As iron sharpens iron,
so one person sharpens
another."

We hear this verse a lot, and at first glance it feels simple. But when you really think about it, sharpening iron isn't a gentle process. It's loud. It's forceful. Sparks fly. It's uncomfortable, even exhausting.

And here's the key: iron can't be sharpened by wood, or plastic, or anything weaker. It can only be sharpened by something of equal strength. That's exactly how God designed relationships to work. We need people who will challenge us, push us, and even make us uncomfortable, because that's what sharpens us. Without it, we grow dull. If you're the sharpest one in the room, eventually you'll grow dull.

So here's the question: who's sharpening you? Are the people around you making you sharper, or duller? Are you surrounding yourself with others who will draw you closer to the heart of the Father, even when it's difficult?
