THE CHURCH AT CITYSTATION

Easter is over. All the photos in our spring outfits, dinners at mom's house, and egg hunts are over. In fact, the very thing we celebrate in the church at Easter is over. Done. Finished. Jesus is alive and risen!

So now do we just wait until Christmas and celebrate again then?

Don't fall into the trap of believing we celebrated once and now we are good. Our outlook on life is so different because of Christ! Now we can have a joyful trust in God, because He did what He had planned all along. He filled us with His love and now we can live a life of generosity, brimming with love for others, full of expectant hope of Jesus returning and making all things right. Everyday that follows Easter can be a greater celebration as we look toward our future with Him and share our joy with others. Has the joy of Easter Sunday moved you to sharing God's love with others? Let's pray God will give us opportunities to share His love with others as each day passes. What an incredible celebration it will be when someone learns the beauty of Jesus' sacrifice and resurrection. It will be Easter all over again!
